Student Name:	Individual Participation in Group: Distinguishes individual claims from other group members'; transitions between ideas;	Responds to Argument/ Counter- argument: Responds to claims made by opposing team as well as those made by team members;	Original claims: Makes original, clear, specific, and arguable claims or counterarguments	Evidence: Includes persuasive textual evidence that specifically references course texts	Warrants: Provides convincing explanation for evidence; analyzes rhetorical strategies such as ethos, logos, pathos	Group Ethos: Persuasive overall rhetorical effect; cohesiveness and transitioning between individual sections; displays audience awareness	Total Points:
	takes on equitable workload (4 pts)	displays audience awareness (4 pts)	(4 pts)	(4 pts)	(4 pts)	(5 pts)	